

Bolton Hospice
caring from the heart

Thank you so much for taking part in our Jolly Jumper Day! Your support really makes a difference to the patients and families we care for. All your fundraising efforts will help us to continue to provide free specialist care and support at our Inpatient unit and through our day therapy and hospice at home services.

Thank you for your support, we couldn't do what we do without you!

Jolly Jumper day Fundraising ideas

Name the Angel

Get your work colleagues to bring in their baby pictures and for a small donation, match the picture to a work colleague!

Hold a Christmas raffle or tombola

These are both fantastic ways to maximise your fundraising activity for Bolton Hospice. Ask friends and family to donate an item each for prizes.

Hold a Christmas bake sale

Everyone loves cake, especially at Christmas time so why not bake to boost your fundraising!

Christmas Bring and Buy

Dig out your unwanted gifts, bottles and toys and have a bring at buy sale at work or school

How Your Support Helps

- £17 could pay for an hour of compassionate nursing care over the festive period
- £28 could pay for a bereavement support session for a family member struggling to cope with the loss of a loved one
- £54 could pay for a delicious Christmas dinner with all the trimmings for all our inpatients
- £103 could pay for our hospice at home nurses to visit a patient this Christmas, allowing them to remain at home surrounded by their family.

We'd love to see you in your festive knits so please send us any pictures that you take on the day and we will feature them on social media .

Pass The Christmas Parcel

Game Organiser— Play for a bit of fun or ask each team member for a small donation to play. Everyone sits in a circle and the game organiser reads the story below. Every time the word LEFT is read, the parcel is passed to the left, same with the word RIGHT The person holding the parcel at the end is the winner!

Twas the night RIGHT before Christmas when RIGHT through the house

Not a creature was LEFT stirring, not even and mouse

The stocking were hung RIGHT by the chimney with care,

In hopes that St. Nicholas would be RIGHT there.

The children were nestled RIGHT snug in their beds,

While visions of sugarplums danced RIGHT in the heads,

And mama in her kerchief, and I in my cap,

Had just settled RIGHT down for a long winter's nap,

When RIGHT out on the LEFT lawn there rose such a clatter,

I sprang RIGHT from my bed to see what was the matter.

Tore open the shutters and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow

LEFT a luster of midday to objects RIGHT below.

When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,

But a miniature sleigh and eight tiny reindeer.

With a little old driver RIGHT lively and quick;

I knew RIGHT in a moment it must be St. Nick.

More rapid than eagles his courses they came;

And whistled and shouted, and called them RIGHT by name:

“Now, Dasher! Now, Dancer! Now Prancer and Vixen!

On Comet, on Cupid, on Donner and Blitzen!

To the RIGHT top of the porch, to the LEFT top of the wall!

Now dash away, dash away, dash RIGHT away all!

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricanes fly
When the RIGHT with an obstacle, mount RIGHT up to the sky,
So up to the housetop the courses they LEFT flew,
With a sleigh full of toys and St Nicholas too.
And then in a twinkling, I heard RIGHT on the roof,
The prancing and pawing of each RIGHT and LEFT hoof.

As I drew in my head and was turning LEFT around
Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.
He was dressed all in fur, RIGHT from his head to his LEFT foot,
And his clothes were all LEFT tarnished with ashes and soot.
A bundle of toys he flung RIGHT on his back,
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack.

His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry!
His droll little mouth was LEFT drawn up like a bow,
And the beard LEFT on his chin was as white as the snow.
He had a broad face and a round little belly,
That shook when he laughed, like a bowl full of jelly.

He was RIGHT chubby and plump, a RIGHT , RIGHT jolly old elf,
And I laughed when I saqw him in spite of myself.
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.
He spoke not a word, but went RIGHT straight to his work,
And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk
And laying his finger to the LEFT of his nose,
And giving a nod, he LEFT up the chimney he rose.

He sprang to his sleigh, to his team gave a whistle,
And away they all left like the down of a thistle.
But I heard him exclaim, ere he LEFT— out of sight
“Happy Christmas to all and to all a good night.”
